

Senior Ballet Instructor

About Goh Ballet Academy:

Goh Ballet Canada achieves the highest levels of professionalism in classical ballet training and performance productions while supporting its students' passion for dance and dedication to their art. With steadfast commitment for over 40 years, Goh Ballet offers vibrant, innovative, and diverse dance educational and performance production experiences to the communities we serve.

Our Mission and Vision:

Goh Ballet Academy is unique in that students are able to take advantage of world class training and opportunities while benefitting from high quality of life, academic excellence through our public and private school system, and for those that live in Vancouver, the ability to remain with their families until after graduation. Our well-rounded training programs offer opportunities that are typically found only in ballet schools officially associated with the top ballet companies around the world which are often funded federally and designed specifically to feed into these companies.

The Academy is extremely proud to acknowledge the achievements of our students at international competitions and the visibility of our graduates who fill the ranks of world renowned companies. The continued success of our students and the dedication of their families provide motivation for our Faculty and supporters to continue to strive for excellence.
