Canada Homestay Network

Since 1995, the Canada Homestay Network has assisted tens of thousands of students in finding their home away from home. To learn more about the Canada Homestay Network, visit www.canadahomestaynetwork.ca/for-students/.

To start your application, visit www.studentportal.chnonline.ca/apply. Canada Homestay Network's detailed application process allows agents to understand the student's preferences, hobbies, personality, and diet to best match them with a host family. It will take up to two business days for the agency to review your application, and then once payment has been completed, 3-4 weeks to match you with a host family. The Canada Homestay Network also provides customers with airport transportation and other optional services such as custodianship, medical insurance, and extra nights.
